Office of the Chief Engineer (AE)

The Office of the Chief Engineer provides overall review of the technical readiness and execution of all GRC programs to ensure the development efforts and mission operations are being planned and conducted on a sound engineering basis with proper programmatic controls.